

Baseball in Denver: A Photographic Journey Through the History of the City's Pastime

Baseball has been a part of Denver's culture for over a century. The city's first professional baseball team, the Denver Bears, was founded in 1885. The Bears played in the Western League and were one of the most successful teams in the league, winning the championship in 1887 and 1888. In 1958, the Denver Bears became the Denver Zephyrs and moved to the Pacific Coast League. The Zephyrs were a popular team in Denver and played in the city for over 30 years. In 1993, the Zephyrs moved to New Orleans and were replaced by the Colorado Rockies, who became Denver's first Major League Baseball team.
