

Fireworks in Japan: A Visual Journey Through Japan's Explosive Festivals

Japan is known for its many festivals, and one of the most popular is the fireworks festival. These festivals are held all over the country throughout the summer, and they attract millions of visitors each year.

Fireworks in Japan are not just about the pretty lights in the sky. They are also a way to celebrate Japanese culture and tradition. The fireworks themselves are often designed to resemble traditional Japanese symbols, such as the cherry blossom or the rising sun.
