Quotes from Harriet Tubman

“I freed a thousand slaves. I could have freed a thousand more if only they knew they were slaves.”

“

“If you hear the dogs, keep going. If you see the torches in the woods, keep going. If there's swamp, wade it. If there's water, swim it. There's one of two things you have a right to—liberty or death; if you don't get the one, get the other.”
