

The Articles of Confederation, the Constitution, and the Declaration of All Bill of Rights

A Comprehensive Guide to the Founding Documents of the United States

This book is a comprehensive guide to the Articles of Confederation, the Constitution, and the Declaration of All Bill of Rights. It provides a detailed overview of each document, its history, and its significance.

The Articles of Confederation were the first constitution of the United States. They were adopted in 1781 and established a loose confederation of states. The Articles of Confederation proved to be ineffective, however, and were replaced by the Constitution in 1789.
